REPORTING YOUR CREDIT

This on-demand seminar was originally presented as a live webcast on May 25, 2022, in Seattle, WA. If you attended the live webcast and reported CLE credits, you cannot also report credits from watching or listening to this recording if repeated within your three year reporting period.

DESCRIPTION

While focused on Health Law, this CLE will have wide appeal for attorneys working in various practice areas. Sessions provide helpful updates from the Washington Medical Commission; privacy laws; as well as cybersecurity and antitrust enforcement.

AGENDA1 HIPPA and State Privacy Law for Interdisciplinary Lawyers

The privacy canons of health law are a kraken that affects lawyers across almost all areas of practice. This session is designed to offer a foundational understanding of federal and state privacy laws for new health lawyers and our colleagues including in the Civil Rights Law, Consumer Protection, Elder Law, Family Law, Labor and Employment Law, and Litigation sections.

Cat Kozlowski - Polsinelli PC, Seattle, WA

Lori Oliver - Polsinelli PC, Seattle, WA

2 Healthcare Cybersecurity Enforcement

The digital age is fraught with peril and consequence. This session is designed to offer health lawyers of all experience levels and attorneys in cyber practice areas fundamental information about legal obligations and enforcement actions affecting healthcare cybersecurity.

Kimberly Gordy - Baker Hostetler, Houston, TX

3 Developments in Healthcare Antitrust and Enforcement

Affiliations between healthcare entities can impact anyone who falls within their radius of influence. This session is designed to provide broad-base knowledge of healthcare antitrust law and developments for new health lawyers and our colleagues in the Antitrust, Business Law, and Litigation sections.

Douglas Ross – University of Washington School of Law, Seattle, WA

4 Updates from the Washington Healy Commission

The pandemic has been a catalyst prompting variegated change across all environments. This session is designed to provide updates about WMC rules and policies for healthcare practitioners and may be of particular benefit to our colleagues in the Administrative Law and Civil Rights Law sections.

Melanie de Leon – Executive Director, Washington Medical Commission, Olympia, WA
