DESCRIPTION

Join us online for a two-part CLE series on discovery and evidence.

The first seminar in this series focuses on depositions, an important part of the discovery process. Expert faculty will guide you through practical strategies and ethics related to depositions.

Part two of this series, Presenting Compelling Stories at Trial (#25698 WEB), will take place on Thursday, December 12, 2024. You may register for one session at the regular price or register for the entire two-part series at a discounted price. There are additional discounts for New Members (members licensed for less than 5 years in Washington).
