REPORTING YOUR CREDIT

This recorded seminar was originally presented as the live seminar and webcast Bankruptcy Booster: A Refresher Course for Attorneys on All Sides, recorded on May 23, 2017, in Seattle, WA. If you attended the live seminar or webcast and reported CLE credits, you cannot also report credits from watching or listening to this recording.

DESCRIPTION

Bankruptcy Booster is a refresher course on the basic principles relating to bankruptcy law (along with the use of state court receiverships as an alternative). Topics include the issues (for both debtors and creditors) which arise in Chapter 7, 11 and 13 proceedings as a result of the fundamental differences between those chapters.

If your practice touches on bankruptcy issues, whether you represent creditors or debtors, you will not want to miss this valuable recorded seminar packed with practical guidance and how-tos from both sides.

AGENDA

1 Consulting with Clients on Pre-bankruptcy Planning

Gloria Z. Nagler — Nagler Law Group PS, Seattle

2 Receiverships: An Alternative Method to Navigate the Seas of Financial Distress

This session begins with a general overview of bankruptcy law and the different types of bankruptcy relief that are available. The second half of the session focuses on state-court receiverships; what they are, when they should be used, and commonly faced challenges that arise therein. The overall goal of the session is to provide a broad overview of the different types of bankruptcy relief that are available and then to delve into the specific risks and benefits of using a state court receivership as a means to help a client in financial distress.

Steven J. Reilly — The Tracy Law Group PLLC, Seattle

Agenda continues on the next page.

- 3 Representing Chapter 13 Debtors: Pre-filing Considerations. Drafting Plans so They Can be Confirmed
This session covers both pre-filing considerations when discussing Chapter 13 as an option with clients, and how to put a plan together to get it confirmed by the court if Chapter 13 is right for your client.
